O. C. W. Open House.

The warm spot which the Oklahoma College for Women occupies in the hearts of Chickasha people was shown Wednesday afternoon when an enthusiastic and continuous throng of visitors were guests of the college from 2 to 6 o'clock. The clubs of the city were well represented, the members from some of them attending practically in a body, and all of the visitors manifested much interest in the work of the college.

The departments of commercial art, domestic art, fine arts and domestic science had splendid exhibits. In the domestic art department, lingerie, dresses, shirtwaists and embroidered linens, all the work of students, were on display. Many of the students in domestic art are also in the fine arts department and the designs for embroidery are all original. Penmanship was among the special features of the commercial art exhibit and lovers of fine decorated china were delighted in the fine arts department. Here also the designs were strictly original, and many of the drawings and sketches from life, of students in the fine arts classes, are of great merit. The domestic science exhibit was probably the most elaborate, and many of the visitors declared that it was the nicest of its kind that they had ever visited. Dishes unusual and inviting were in tempting array to delight the housewife. In the dining room tables were correctly set for the first and third courses of a luncheon.

From the main building the guests went to Nellie Sparks Hall, where they were informally received by President and Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Shaw, and several of the teachers. Roses, honey-suckle and vines decorated the parlors and hall, and orchestra music added to the harmony of the occasion. A delightful program of readings by Misses Dorothea Quigley of Weatherford and Bess Flowers of Duncan and vocal selections by Miss Hazel Canfield of El Reno, also entertained the guests. Frozen punch and ladies' fingers were the dainty refreshments served.

The annual high school Senior-Junior reception was held Thursday night at Hillcrest, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chastain. The members of both classes and the high school faculty enjoyed the hospitality of the seniors on this happy occasion. The reception hall was gayly decorated in purple and gold, the high school colors, and the archway from the hall into the music room was decorated with a large crepe pennant in green and white, the junior colors, bearing the word Juniors. The music room was festively adorned in green and white with streamers from the chandelier to the walls and mantel. Here, an orchestra, stationed in an alcove, played throughout the evening. The library and dining room were also made attractive with trimmings of white and green, the chandelier in the latter room bearing a mass of white and green streamers suspended over the dining table. Bouquets of white carnations, the juniors' chosen flower, were a pretty part of the decorations and were also given as favors. The musical program by the orchestra was supplemented by numbers by members of the class. An interesting contest furnished amusement. Alfie Benton receiving the prize, a little green cake. The refreshments enjoyed late in the evening consisted of ice cream, cakes iced in green with the numerals "16" on them and green mints. Misses Oda Mullins, Dora Smith, Thera Whitley and Gladys Wilson, freshman girls, presided at the dining room table.

Mothers' Club Meeting.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the Mothers' club yesterday afternoon at the Presbyterian parish house. Mrs. Paul Morrow led a discussion on the story and its place in child life, and this subject will be later followed up with a discussion of stories for the "teen" age. The ladies hope that all mothers in Chickasha interested in these subjects will attend the club meetings.

Monday Bridge Club.

A meeting of the Monday Bridge club enjoyed by all, was held this week at the home of Mrs. B. W. Fessler. There were no guests other than the club members and auction was the pastime at two tables. Delicious refreshments were served at 5 o'clock, concluding the pleasant afternoon.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

An important meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy was held last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ben Hudgens, Mrs. Hudgens and Mrs. H. L. Grigsby being the hostesses. The principal business attended to, was the election of officers, the following ones being chosen: Mrs. Cavett, president; Mrs. Grigsby, first vice president; Mrs. Bird, second vice president; Mrs. Sanders, recording secretary; Mrs. H. N. Smith, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ellis, treasurer; Mrs. Kendall Callaway, historian; Mrs. Helen Spruce, chaplain; Mrs. W. G. Armstrong, custodian of flag; Mrs. Callaway, Mrs. May and Mrs. Ellis, executive committee. An interesting program opening with appropriate instrumental selections by Misses Marjorie Dwyer and Marjorie Cochran followed. Mrs. J. A. Thompson read a paper on William Gilmore Simms and Mrs. May gave a sketch of the life of Father Ryan. Misses Owsley and Weaver contributed to the program with a beautiful vocal duet and "Dixie" played by Miss Ada Hudgens was the concluding number.

Mrs. Meadams Hudgens and Grigsby served a delicious ice course late in the afternoon.

A Home Wedding.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Meier, 1227 Minnesota avenue, was the scene of a pretty though simple wedding last Monday noon, when Mrs. Meier's sister, Miss Ealon Justice, was married to Mr. J. Worth Teagarden of Dallas, Tex. A few intimate friends and relatives from Mt. View made up the party, who witnessed the ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Old. The rooms were attractively decorated in cut flowers, furnishing a festive and cheerful background for the happy couple. The bride looked charming in her traveling suit of blue fall silk, with hat to match, and the groom was heartily congratulated upon his fortunate choice. Miss Justice spent the past winter in Chickasha with her sister and includes many Chickasha folk among the friends who wish her joy. Delicious refreshments followed the ceremony, the ice cream being moulded into wedding bells, and Mr. and Mrs. Teagarden left soon afterwards for Dallas. They will be at the Hotel Adolphus until in June, when they will go to housekeeping in Oak Cliff. Mr. Teagarden is engaged in the insurance business and is prominent in Dallas business circles.

College Girls to Give Party.

A crowd of two hundred jolly girls and boys enjoyed the party Wednesday night given by the students of the Oklahoma College for Women at Nellie Sparks Hall. A number of the boys and girls were from out of town, but they were soon made to feel at home by the informal hospitality extended. The large dining room was cleared for the occasion and progressive games were played. For being the most fortunate in playing, Miss Ethel Russell of Duncan and J. B. Eskridge, Jr. were awarded O. C. W. pennants. A pleasing program with readings by Misses Clara Pearce of El Dorado, Beatrice Roll of Fletcher and Olive Robertson of Oklahoma City, and songs by Miss Hazel Canfield, followed the games. Ice cream and individual angel foods were served before the happy party disbanded.

"Stay All Day" Party.

Mrs. B. P. Smith extended the hospitality of her home to a number of friends whom she invited to spend Wednesday with her. At the noon hour an elaborate dinner was served at a table perfectly appointed. Covers were laid for Mesdames B. P. Smith, Ledford, Barefoot, Cochran, Davenport, Wooten, B. B. Bridges, Gilker, Elmer Terrell, Bryce Smith, Lamar and Good. In the afternoon the ladies attended the open house at the Oklahoma College for Women.

1907 Bridge Club Honors Member.

Mrs. H. B. Johnson, whose approaching departure to Texas has caused many manifestations of regret in social circles, was the honoree at an exquisite luncheon given by the members of the 1907 Bridge club at the Geronimo Tuesday. A magnificent bouquet of roses from Mrs. Retford Bond's garden graced the center of the table, and the attractive appointments were in keeping. The delicious luncheon was served in six courses. Mrs. Johnson was presented with a beautiful friendship pin and the club members were assured that the circle would always be one of her most cherished possessions. Following the luncheon, the club adjourned to the home of Mrs. Ludlow, where cards were enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon.

High School Teachers Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Losey had as their guests at 7 o'clock dinner Wednesday night Misses Stewart, Goodnight and Flagler of the Chickasha high school faculty. The table was daintily laid and decorated with exquisite cut flowers and the menu was served in six courses.
